

A Conversation with... NORMAN FINKELSTEIN

Israel & Palestine: What's Preventing Peace?

Dr. Norman Finkelstein is an American professor of Political Science and one of the foremost thinkers and speakers on the Israel-Palestine conflict.

Saturday October 17, 2009, 7:30pm

CANADIAN MENNONITE UNIVERSITY, LAUDAMUS AUDITORIUM (NORTH CAMPUS)
CANADIAN MENNONITE UNIVERSITY, 500 SHAFTESBURY BLVD.

- What are the conditions for peace in the Middle East?
- Is peace desired by those in political power?
- If so, why, after so many years, has it not happened?
- What DOES stand in the way of peace in the Middle East?

We will explore these and other questions you bring

To promote conversation and deeper understanding, following the presentation Finkelstein will be joined on stage by a facilitator, and in turn, those who wish to engage with him.

Note: The series, 'A Conversation With...' is intended to create conversation, and the hosting of this series is intended to be neither endorsement nor disapproval of the points of view of any of the presenters or participants.

This conversation presented by:

Canadians for Justice and Peace in the Middle East and the Institute for Community Peacebuilding
a program of Canadian Mennonite University

